

I am 88 years old and live in an assisted care facility. The Wisconsin no call list has made my life much easier. The no call list should not be weakened or modified in any way,